Distance trekking of several days becomes possible without too much organizational effort.

DAY 1: Meiringen - Aareschlucht - Innertkirchen

Walk to the Aareschlucht. The gorge is an impressive witness to the last Ice Age.

Hiking time: 1h30 - Overnight accommodation in Meiringen

DAY 2: Meiringen - Grosse Scheidegg - Grindelwald

The closeness of the mountain giants and the glaciers, the numerous wild brooks and the splendid fauna make this hike an impressive experience.

Hiking time: 4h - Overnight accommodation in Grindelwald

DAY 3: Grindelwald - Kleine Scheidegg - Lauterbrunnen

The Kleine Scheidegg belongs to the most-travelled pass routes of the Bernese Highlands. The view of the trio Eiger, Mönch und Jungfrau is unique.

Hiking time: 8h - Over-night accommodation in Lauterbrunnen

DAY 4: Lauterbrunnen - Mürren - Sefinenfurgge - Kiental

The highlight of the mountain scenery is the variation from the spell of the highland mountains forms to the nearness of the fern fields of the Blüemlisalp. Hiking time: 6h

Overnight accommodation in Kiental

DAY 5: Kiental - Hohtürli - Kandersteg

High-alpine crossing from the Kien Valley into the Kander Valley. The blooming alpine fields, the immediate closeness of the glaciers and the views into the deep blue of lake Oeschinen will let every hiker's heart beat higher.

Hiking time: 7h - Overnight accommodation in Kandersteg

DAY 6: Kandersteg - Sunnbühl - Rote Chumme - Engstligenalp

Between glacier and mountain lake up on the wild Engstligen-ridge and over the flowery Alps down to the inviting mountain houses on the Engstligenalp.

Hiking time: 5h - Overnight accommodation on the Engstigenalp
